Sardinia, an autonomous region of Italy, the second largest island in the Mediterranean, has cultural influences from every direction that have enriched this island with a fascinating local culture. And the roads? Without hesitation, we can declare they are some of the best in Europe!

This is a short adventure that takes us through the northern part of the island, including the famous Emerald Coast, Alghero, Olbia, Bosa's old city. Rich with history, historical sights, arts and crafts of the Sardinian people, and excellent food and accommodation, this is one you won't want to miss!

Highlights

Olbia • Costa Smeralda • Antique city of Alghero • Orgosolo • and much much more...
